Greetings!

This is to acknowledge receipt of your application papers expressing your intention to enter the government service.

Please be informed that the Provincial Government of Pangasinan has recently undergone reorganization and at present we have enough workforce and we are not in the process of filling-up vacant positions.

However, the Human Resource Management and Development Office has initially screened your application papers and should your qualification fit, we may consider you to any opportunity that may become available in the future.

Your Papers are now placed among the active files of applicants for our future reference.

Our warmest regards.

Very truly yours,

AMADO T. ESPINO, JR.
